A NEW WAY TO COMMUNICATE

Illinois Department of Public Aid

To better serve people who are deaf and people who are hearing impaired, the Illinois Department of Public Aid is now equipped with Telephone Devices for the Deaf (TDD's).

The listings in this brochure may be used as a reference to assist you in reaching the Illinois Department of Public Aid should you need any of the assistance programs it offers, or if you want information.

For general information and/or assistance in determining which of the Department's offices to contact, call the Department's Bureau of Public Inquiry in Springfield:

(217) 782-0963 TDD

If you need a sign language interpreter for an appointment in one of the Agency's offices, call:

- The office in which you have or want the appointment;
- The Regional Office serving the county in which you live; or
- The Section 504 Office in Springfield: (217) 782-0936 TDD.

The telephone numbers listed below are TDD only. To contact the Department by voice, please consult your local telephone directory.
